INTRODUCTION

Late Shri Mangaldas Verma, noted industrialist and philanthropist founded the College in 1962. Shri Verma had a fervent desire to bring education to the socially and economically challenged sections of society. He established this Institution in the heart of the labour area so that opportunities to pursue higher education would be available to them. M.D. College of Arts, Science & Commerce which housed 300 students in 1962, now caters to the needs of over 8000 students. This was the vision of our founder - who saw far and beyond.

He named the college after the great reformer and founder of the Arya Samaj - "Maharshi Dayanand Saraswati"

ॐ

Maharshi Dayanand Saraswati

(12th Feb. 1825 – 30th Oct. 1883)

The well known socio-religious reformer and founder of the Arya Samaj, Swami was born in the village of Tankara – Kathiawar in Gujarat State. He was a shivbhakta and whilst performing pooja and havan on "Mahashivaratra" day, he got 'enlightenment'. College celebrates 'Mahashivaratri' as 'Rishibodh Day'. He rejected idol worship, rigidity of the caste system and rituals. His slogan was 'back to the Vedas' – Hinduism in its pristine form to be followed and also believed in the uplift of the downtrodden.
