

REPORT

Event Title: “Career Opportunities in Digital Marketing and Web Technologies”

Date: 10TH OCTOBER '18

Particulars:

1. Third year students generally struggle in figuring out their interest in different fields to take up as career. Handful of effort was taken through this seminar to resolve their problem and helped them to take a determined decision.
2. Student's knowledge was enhanced by introducing those interesting areas in Computer Science having demand in Industry.
3. Students were motivated with the software's trending in industries. They were benefited with various applications supplicating the need of such software's in various fields.

No. of Students Participated:

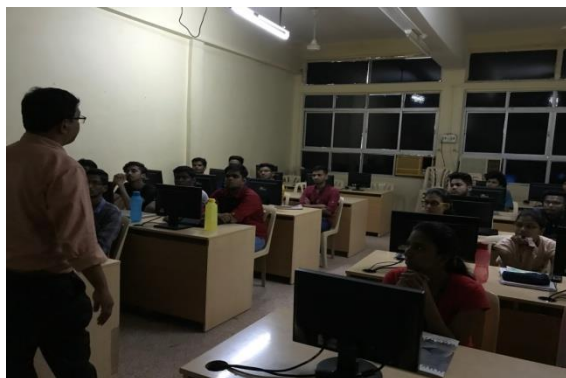

Students participating in the seminar

Resource person interacting with students

Resource person imparting knowledge

Interactive session among resource person and T.Y students