

Department of Political science

Program Objectives and Learning outcomes

Undergraduate Program in Political Science is offered in the college with the following papers-

FYBA Paper I : Indian Political System

SYBA Paper II : Political Theory

Paper III : Public Administration

TYBA Paper IV : International Relations

Paper V : Political Thought

Paper VI : Political Processes in Maharashtra

Objectives:

- To educate students about constitutional framework, basic values enshrined in the Indian Constitution, political processes in India and Maharashtra
- To develop an understanding of the nation's political institutions, political culture, and political ideologies, as well as how public policy is decided upon and implemented
- To learn about the concepts, theories, and data needed to comprehend the interactions of nations that constitute international relations, and the nature of such global institutions as the United Nations, regional alliances, and understand India's foreign policy
- To prepare students for a variety of careers or graduate and professional degree programs in fields such as law, government, education, politics etc.
- To offer students the analytical and research skills needed to understand and explain politics, government, and international relations

Outcomes:

- Understanding of the institutions, processes, constitutional background, and policy outcomes of Indian government
- Knowledge of key theories and concepts, historical developments, organizations, and modern issues in international relations
- Prepare students for various competitive examinations specially civil services examinations conducted by Union Public Service Commission and Maharashtra Public Service Commission

